

An unidentified member of the National Bureau of Standards Mass Spectrometry Division in 1948. She is shown using a mass spectrometer for the analysis of gases. The mass spectrometer ionized gas at extremely low pressure and measured the mass of the resulting ions. Molecules were identified by their molecular weight and by the molecular weights of their dissociation products.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

To see more historic NIST images visit www.nist.gov/digitalarchives.

